

Publications and Presentations

Dr. Shahid Alvi's publications include his book, Youth Criminal Justice Policy in Canada: A Critical Introduction (2011), New York, Springer Press; an article in Violence Against Women, "Experiences of Muslim and Non-Muslim Battered Immigrant Women with the Police in the United States: A Closer Understanding of Commonalities and Differences," written along with Nawal Ammar, Amanda Couture, and Jaclyn San Antonio; and "Proceed with Caution: Technology Fetishism and the Millennial Generation," in Journal of Interactive Technology and Smart Education. 2011 (Vol. 8, No. 2), pp. 135-144.

In addition to articles and grants with Drs. Alvi, Zaidi and Fernando, Dr. Nawal Ammar's publications include N. Ammar, L. Orloff, G. Hass and M.A. Dutton (forthcoming), "Battered immigrant women in the US and Protection Orders," Criminal Justice Review; and, Couture, A. & Ammar, N. (forthcoming), "Battered woman syndrome," in Criminal Law Volume of the New Encyclopaedia of Criminology & Criminal Justice, Wiley-Blackwell.

Dr. Rachel Ariss and John Cutfeet have published "Kitchenuhmaykoosib Inninuwug First Nation: Mining, Consultation, Reconciliation and Law" in the Indigenous Law Journal (2011) 10(1): 1 - 37.

Dr. Kimberley Clow's recent work includes, Clow, K.A., Ricciardelli, R., & Cain, T.L. (in press), "Stigma-by-association: Prejudicial effects of the prison experience for offenders and ex-offenders," in D.W. Russell's (Ed.) The Psychology of Prejudice: Contemporary Issues. New York: Nova Science Publishers, Inc. Clow has also produced a report along with B. Cullen entitled, Community Capacity Inventory of Immigration Services in Durham Region (2011), given to Durham Region and the Welcoming Communities Initiative, <http://www.welcomingcommunities.ca>. Also published, Clow, K.A., Ricciardelli, R., Cain, T.L., & Baltovich, R. (2011, September), "Stigma & wrongful conviction: The influence of government compensation and DNA testing," was presented at the annual meeting of the Midwestern Criminal Justice Association, Chicago, Illinois.

Dr. Brian Cutler's edited volume Conviction of the Innocent: Lessons from Psychological Research was published in August of 2011. He is currently editing a new volume entitled, Reform of Eyewitness Identification Procedures. The publisher for both books is the American Psychological Association Press. In the past year Professor Cutler served as an expert witness in Michigan, Utah, and Virginia, testifying about the psychology of eyewitness identification procedures. He was also consulted by script writers for NBC's series Harry's Law.

Dr. Walter DeKeseredy has co-authored an article (with Callie M. Rennison and Molly Dragiewicz) titled, "Urban, suburban, and rural variations in separation/divorce rape/sexual assault: Results from the national crime victimization survey," which will appear soon in the journal, Feminist Criminology. With the same co-authors he has another article in press with the journal Violence Against Women titled, "Intimate relationship status variations in violence against women: Urban, suburban, and rural differences." Dr. DeKeseredy and Molly Dragiewicz have one more piece in press with Violence Against Women titled, "Claims about women's use of non-fatal force in intimate relationships: A contextual review of the Canadian research."

Dr. Aziz Douai has recently secured a book contract with IGI Global for a book co-edited with Dr. Anthony Olorunnisola, New media influence on social and political change in Africa. In addition to several academic publications this year, he has co-authored "Commenting in the online Arab public sphere: Debating the Swiss minaret ban and the "Ground Zero" mosque online," to be published in the Journal of Computer-Mediated Communication. Dr. Douai has also co-authored with Sungwook Kim, "Google vs. China's "Great Firewall": Ethical implications for free speech and sovereignty," to be published in the next issue of Technology in Society.

Dr. Molly Dragiewicz's publications include, Dragiewicz, M. & DeKeseredy, W.S. (in press). "Claims about women's use of non-fatal force in intimate relationships: A contextual review of the Canadian research," in Violence Against Women; and Rennison, C., DeKeseredy, W.S. & Dragiewicz, M. (in press). "Intimate relationship status variation in sexual and physical assault: Urban, suburban, and rural trends," in Violence Against Women.

Dr. Shanti Fernando along with Ben Earle has authored "Linking poverty reduction and economic recovery: supporting community responses to austerity in Ontario," in Canadian Review of Social Policy forthcoming special issue: Poverty Reduction Strategies: What a Difference an Economic Crisis Makes. She has a book review in press of: Janet W. Salaff, Siu-lun Wong and Arent Greve's "Hong Kong Movers and Stayers: Narratives of Family Migration," from University of Illinois Press which will appear in Canadian Ethnic Studies Vol. 41 (3)

Dr. Judith Grant's second book titled Men and substance abuse: Narratives of addiction and recovery, will be available in February, 2012, published by FirstForumPress, Lynne Rienner Publishers. Dr. Grant will also be presenting a conference paper titled, "Reflections on narrating stories of women and men formerly addicted to drugs and/or alcohol," at the 29th Annual Qualitative Analysis Conference: Cultures of Narrative/ Narratives of Culture in St. John's, Newfoundland, June 20-22, 2012.

Continued on back

Publications and Presentations (continued)

Dr. Alyson King has one recent article, King, Alyson E. (2012), "Cartooning History: Canada's Stories in Graphic Novels," in The History Teacher Volume 45 Number 2.

Dr. Sharon Lauricella has published "Making sense of spiritual media: An audience study of The Secret DVD," book and website," in Nebula, 8(1). The article can be viewed via: <http://www.nobleworld.biz/images/Lauricella.pdf>. She also published, with Dr. E. James Baesler and Dr. Terry Lindvall, "Assessing predictions of Relational Prayer Theory II: Media and interpersonal inputs, public and private prayer processes, and spiritual health," in Southern Communication Journal, 76(3).

Dr. Barbara Perry's recent publications include her book, Diversity, Crime and Justice in Canada, Oxford University Press, 2011. Her presentations include a keynote address, "Speaking of Hate" at the When Law and Hate Collide Symposium in Gothenburg, Sweden, September 26, 2011.

Dr. Steve Redhead's recently published book, We Have Never Been Postmodern:

Theory at the Speed of Light (Edinburgh University Press, Edinburgh, 2011) has been nominated for the 2012 Rene Wellek Prize, given by the American Comparative Literature Association (ACLA). Some of his other work includes an article, "Soccer Casuals: A Slight Return of Youth Culture," in International Journal of Child, Youth and Family Studies, vol 3 no 1, 2012, pp 65-82 <http://journals.uvic.ca/index.php/ijcyfs/article/view/10474>

Dr. Hannah Scott successfully licensed a film series on SPSS to Oxford University Press for release in 2012, "The Virtual Teaching Assistant: Film Series Demonstrating Operations of the Statistical Package from the Social Sciences (SPSS) 19.0." Toronto, ON.: Oxford University Press. Scott will also be presenting a paper with her graduate student, Katie Fleming, at the Academy of Criminal Justice Science's Annual Meeting in New York City (March 13-17, 2012) entitled, "Patterns of mass murder among biological mothers who commit child filicide," (2012).

Dr. Andrea Slane's body of work includes an article written in collaboration with Lisa M. Austin, "What's In a Name?"

Privacy and Citizenship in the Voluntary Disclosure of Subscriber Information in Online Child Exploitation Investigations" (2011) 57: 4 Criminal Law Quarterly 486-508. Her single-authored articles include, "Guarding a Cultural Icon: Concurrent Intellectual Property Regimes and the Perpetual Protection of Anne of Green Gables in Canada", (2011) 56:4 McGill Law Journal 1011-1055, and "From Scanning to Sexting: The Scope of Protection of Dignity-based Privacy in Canadian Child Pornography Law" (2010) 48 Osgoode Hall Law Journal: 543-593.

Dr. Arshia Zaidi has authored, along with A. Couture and E. Maticka-Tyndale, "Reflexive Accounts: An intersectional approach to exploring the fluidity of insider/outsider status and the researcher's impact on culturally sensitive post-positivist qualitative research," in Qualitative Sociology Review, (Forthcoming April/May 2012).

Grants

Dr. Barbara Perry recently secured a SSHRC grant for $66,964.00 for her research, "Anti-Muslim Violence in Ontario: A Pilot Study."

Dr. Hannah Scott received a SSHRC internal grant for the Durham Area Survey Pilot Survey conducted this last summer through the Centre for Evaluation and Survey Research (CESR).

Dr. Steve Redhead and Dr. Tara Brabazon were awarded the Tom Ingram Memorial Fund Research Grant by the Furniture History Society to conduct research.

Dr. Arshia Zaidi, Dr. Nawal Ammar and Dr. Shanti Fernando received an $80,000.00 SSHRC Partnership Development Grant for their research entitled, "Understanding the Missing Link of Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) and Immigrant Racialized Women in Ontario."

Awards and Appointments

Dr. Nawal Ammar was elected Vice President of the National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project, Inc., at American University, Washington College of Law.

Dr. Molly Dragiewicz has been appointed Visiting Fellow in the School of Justice, Faculty of Law at the Queensland University of Technology in Brisbane for July 2012-June 2013.

Dr. Shanti Fernando was appointed sole Director of UOIT's University-Community Link Unit.

Dr. Sharon Lauricella was elected to serve as Secretary of the Spiritual Communication Division within the National Communication Association.

Dr. Arshia Zaidi was the 2010-2011 recipient of the Faculty of Social Science and Humanities (FSSH) Faculty Award. This award is presented to the core faculty member who has inspired students and enriched the quality of learning at UOIT, as voted upon by FSSH students.