

Bansho: Provoking collective knowledge production

Guest Speaker: Dr. Kathy Kubota-Zarivnij,
Mathematics program coordinator, K-12, Teacher
Educator, Past President Ontario Association for
Mathematics Educators, Abacus co-editor

Why Bansho?

- Differentiate instruction
 - Value student thinking
 - Build success criteria from students' own work
 - Create anchor charts for conceptual development
- (Capacity Building Series)

Educational Coding

Workshop Leader: Laura Morrison, M.Ed.

Why Coding?

- Engage and empower 21st century learners
- Develop creative, technical & practical skills
- Develop leading-edge skills, strategies, and pedagogy

Schedule	Bansho Math Room 311	Educational Coding Room 312
IS section 1	8:00 – 10:00	10:10 – 12:00
IS section 2	10:00 – 12:00	1:10 – 3:00
IS section 3	1:00 – 3:00	3:10 – 5:00